It's finally here!

Today is Medical Teams Giving Day

Emily,

It's Medical Teams Giving Day! We have 24 hours to send loving, life-saving medical care to as many people as we can.

A generous donor like you has promised to DOUBLE every donation made today up to $10,000…but don't wait! The match ends tonight at 11:59 p.m.

Will you give now to send 2x the medical care to our neighbors around the world?

When you give, you join a passionate group of supporters who believe that health is the first step toward hope.

Your donation helps a mother like Yatzil, who needs prenatal care after moving to another country for a better life for her children.

You gift cares for babies like Stella, who are fighting dangerous cases of malaria.

Your generosity means little boys like Kingstone get emergency nutrition to treat their malnutrition.

Rush your gift to send TWICE the loving, life-saving medical care to people around the world before 11:59 p.m. tonight!

Plus, when you give today, you can:

- Send 2x the loving, life-saving medical care to people around the world!
- Receive an exclusive gift if you're in the first 100 people to donate $50 or more.

Give today for healing tomorrow. Thank you for your extraordinary generosity!

Martha Holley Newsome
President & CEO

P.S. Be one of the first 100 people to give $50 or more, you'll receive a special present from us in the mail. Make a gift now to be DOUBLED!
