

GIVING TUESDAY

Allison,

Giving Tuesday is one week away! But you don't have to wait to send life-saving care to people around the world – your gift will be DOUBLED starting today.

All donations made between now and Giving Tuesday will be matched dollar-for-dollar in value up to $65,000 total, thanks to a special matching gift. You can help heal thousands of people this Giving Tuesday by donating today.

Will you rush your gift to send 2X the loving, life-saving medical care to our neighbors around the world today?

When you give, you join a global movement of generosity – every Giving Tuesday, Americans donate billions of dollars to help others – and you can be a part of this community of compassionate changemakers! Your gift will have a long-lasting impact:

- You can help a mother in Colombia who needs prenatal care after leaving home so her children have the chance for a better life.
- You can care for a baby in Tanzania who is fighting against a dangerous case of malaria.
- You can send emergency nutrition to a child in Ethiopia to treat their malnutrition.

We hope you'll choose to dare to love like Jesus in this season of plenty by giving 2X the healing today>>

Thank you for opening your heart to our neighbors around the world!
