GIVINGTUESDAY

Your gift doubles

Emily,

With only a few hours remaining, there are still match funds left. You can double your gift right now >>

There's nothing that warms my heart more than seeing healing in action:

- A mother who gets to hold her newborn after surviving an emergency c-section
- A refugee who is greeted with love after escaping a violent war
- A malnourished child who is cared for each week to grow up strong and healthy

Your donation today is more than just money. It's love and compassion coming to life, and it's put to work right away. Through your gift, you act, heal and love.

Your gift means a sick child survives disease, an injured refugee is cared for and a new mother has a safe delivery.

Will you help heal this Giving Tuesday?

I'm still praying that none of these matched funds will be left on the table. Every little bit counts to the $60,000 goal -- with the match that means $120,000 would be helping save the lives of people in crisis.

God asks us to love one another as he has loved us. Show your love for people in crisis by giving today. Give now to match your gift dollar-for-dollar.

Many blessings,

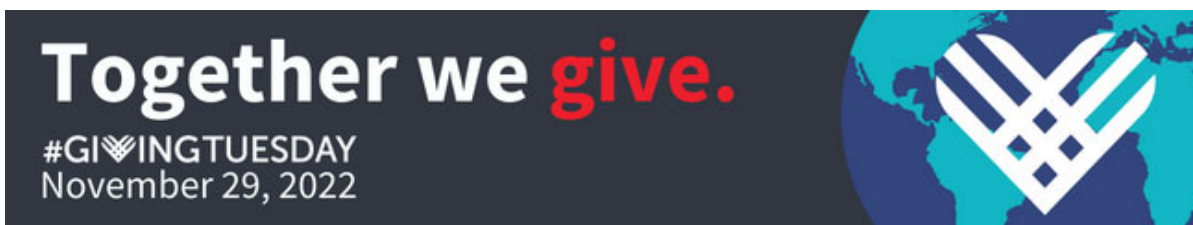

Martha Holley Newsome
